Wedding at the Union Church.

On Saturday morning, the Union Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding, the contracting parties being Mr Harry Haynes, (London), the genial young manager of the Hongkong Hotel and Miss (Esperance) McMillan

Donaldson, eldest daughter of W. Mc-Millan Donaldson, Esq., of 'Auchangray,' Lanarkshire, Scotland. Mr. J.
Cameron of the Hongkong Club, officiated as best man, and the bridesmaids were Miss Ethel Parker and Miss Dorothy (Dollie) Pennington Terrell, the bride being given away by Mr. D. Macdonald of Messrs Kinghorn and Macdonald. The bride was attired in a dress of white poplin trimmed with orange blossom, etc., and the bridesmaids wore charming creations of white muslin and insertion over pink silk, and white hats trimmed with chiffon and tulle, and chiffon strings fastened by pretty pearl brooches, the gift of the bridegroom.
The bride was conducted up the aisle by Mr Macdonald, attended by her bridesmaids, to the strains of the sweet little wedding march from 'Lohengrin,' beautifully rendered by Mr. R. Douglas, the organist of the church. At the conclusion of the service the organ again piped forth the soul-stirring melody 'Vandalschus' Wedding March.' The Rev.
Dr. Walwyn, M.D., the temporary pro-visor, performed the service in a very impressive manner. Considering the inclem-ency of the weather, there was a numerous gathering of friends and relatives to witness the function. After the ceremony, a reception was held at the Hongkong Hotel, and among the various toasts and good wishes of the company, the most eloquent was that of the Rev. Dr. Walwyn, who proposed the health of the bride and bridegroom, remarking that the numerous and costly presents which he had been given were evidence of the high esteem in which the bridegroom, as manager of such a large concern, was held, and his eloquent hope that as efficiently as Mr. Haynes managed that important and flourishing hotel of the East, so Mr. Haynes would manage his newly-made husband in the future. The bridegroom responded in suitable terms. Mr. Macdonald proposed the health of the bridegroom, coupled with that of the best man, and 1.30 p.m., the happy couple (the bride having changed her attire for that of a light gray wedding costume) left amid a shower of old slippers, the congratulations and good-wishes of all their friends present, for the usual honeymoon resort, i.e., Macao.— COMMUNICATED.

HONGKONG AND WHAMPOA DOCK COMPANY.

An extraordinary general meeting of the Hongkong and Whampoa Dock Company was held to-day at the Office of the Company, Queen's Buildings, Mr. E. S.
Whalley presiding. The others present were: Hon. J. K. Kerwick, Messrs N. A.
Sibley, F. Goetz, J. H. Lewis, J. Van Buren and A. Haupt (Directors), D. Gilliss (Chief Manager), T. L. Rose (Secretary), H. W. Looker (Solicitor), G. Murray Bain, G. de Chauvaine, Hart Buck, Henderson, J. F. Rees, W. Farish, J. C.
Peter and G. H. Dunn.

The Chairman said:—Gentlemen, as long ago as February, 1893, the Chairman informed you at a half-yearly meeting that the existing Articles of Association were somewhat obsolete, and the Directors proposed to take up the question of new Articles. You have been advised at each half-yearly meeting since of the progress made with the revision of the Articles, and this meeting is now for the purpose of approving of the revised Articles. Since the notice was put in the newspapers, and the Articles were placed before you, it has been proposed that some few amendments should be made to the Articles. The amendments are in accordance with what has been the practice of the Company; they are principally amendments of words, and we see no reason whatever for not accepting them. In the printing of the Articles there are a few printers' errors, which, of course will be amended when the Articles are printed. I now beg to propose, gentlemen—That the Memorandum and Articles of Association submitted to this meeting be and the same hereby approved and that pursuant to the provisions of the Companies (Memorandum of Association) Ordinance, 1890, the form of the Company's Constitution be altered by substituting such Memorandum of Association with extended objects as therin set forth and such Articles of Association for the Company's Deed of Settlement dated the 29th of August, 1883, and for all regulations of the Company subsequently made and now in force; and that the Directors be authorized to apply to the Court to confirm this resolution under the said Ordinance.

Mr. Lewis—I beg to second.

Mr. Keswick proposed a number of amendments to the Articles.

Mr. Peter seconded.

Mr. Murray Bain—Mr. Chairman, may I ask, are those the amendments you referred to in your opening remarks?

The Chairman—Yes.

Mr. Reeve—I should like to make one or two remarks. I am entirely in favour of the amendments which Mr. Keswick proposed, in fact I think the suggestions came from myself. There are, I think, a few errors which I have no doubt will be corrected. There is only one other matter which I should like to mention, and that is the name of the Company seems to me somewhat obsolete. The words 'and Whampoa' are very meaningless. The Company has for some time ceased to carry on business at Whampoa, and I do not suppose it is contemplated to carry on business there. I think it would be a good thing if steps were taken to change the name of the Company by deleting these words, and making it the Hongkong Dock Company. I understand it is the wish of the Directors to leave this matter to the Court. The memorandum and Articles will come before the Court, and the Directors think it is desirable for the Court to say whether this amendment should be made.

The amendments to the Articles were approved, and the motion was carried.

The Chairman—That is all the business before the meeting, gentlemen. I am much obliged to you for your attendance. Dismissed, will be given of the confirmatory motion.

ANOTHER PROGRAM.
London, 20th June, 1894.
GREAT BRITAIN AND THE TRANSVAAL.

Mr. Fischer has reported to the Afri-kaner leaders the results of his mission to the Boer Government. It is understood that President Kruger is not willing to grant the concessions suggested by the Afri-kaners. The newspapers announce this decision.

A battery of Field Artillery will sail for the Cape on the 15th instant, and another Railway Company of Engineers and a Field Company will be despatched.

Sir H. Campbell-Bannerman, speaking at the City Liberal Club, said that it was the duty of every patriot to avoid anything that would prejudice an amicable settlement in Africa (South), and repeated that there was nothing in what had occurred to justify warlike preparations.

The United States cruiser Chicago has arrived at Delagoa Bay, and Commander Harrison will proceed to Pretoria.

THE DUCHY OF SAXE-COBURG.

The Duke of Connaught has renounced the hereditary of the Duchy of Coburg in favour of the Duke of Albany.

THE FRENCH ARMY.

Paris, June 22.
General de Rocque, having written a letter to the President of the Republic protesting against his being placed on the retired list, has been placed under rigorous arrest.

CORRESPONDENCE.

OBSERVATIONS ON OBSERVA-TORIES.

To the Editor of the 'CHINA MAIL,' Hongkong, July 2, 1894.

Dear Sir.—It should be a rule among professional that it is to their own convenience and not to go interfering with other people. The Reverend Mr. Cobbold may know a lot about theology, but what he doesn't know about astronomy would fill a large book, and therefore he shouldn't say anything to say why sentence should not be imposed upon them.

Tang Cheung So said—It would not be right to sentence me, my Lord. I have not committed it. If I had done so I would not have come down here. They had rendered the witness to press the charge against me. Kwan Put Chi had a sword in his hand and Li Yean Chi had a revolver.
I was wishing to be half for Tang Cheung, but these two witnesses would not allow me to do so.

His Lordship asked that the prisoner be instructed that the Court was not going to interfere in the prisoners that they had been found guilty of murder, and add that they had anything to say why sentence should not be imposed upon them.

Tang Cheung So (continuing) said—It is a case of false accusation against me. My house has been burned and many of the goods of my shop have been moved away.
Mr. Lockhart said the village was to be made up by filling in from the Nautical Almanac, but that is not the business of the scientist, but only for such people as the Manis and the Steamer Observatory.

Chang Chi said—Li Yean Chi and Kwan Put Chi said I have killed someone.
The elders and the gentry were present, and they know about it. The police have not brought up the gentry and the elders.
If your Lordship will ask the gentry they will tell you. There are three men below.

MOTION FOR ARREST OR JUDGMENT.

Mr. Slade, on behalf of the prisoners, moved for an arrest of judgment on the ground, first of all, that the verdict of the jury had been given in such a form that it was not a verdict upon the information as it stood; I seconded, that by no possible amendment of the information it accorded with the law of the Colony could the information be altered to make it a proper verdict. The effect of the verdict of the jury was—We find the prisoners guilty of murdering this man on the 18th, but we cannot say whether the crime was committed on the 17th or 18th.

His Lordship maintained that the practical effect of the jury's verdict was that they found the prisoners guilty of murder, and they found that the murder took place either on the 17th or 18th April. It was immortal what time the crime was committed. Mr. Slade said the rule was that it should be no objection to the indictment or information when there was variance between the time on which the offence was proved and the time alleged in the indictment.
The information could not be quashed for a different time having been proved to that which was alleged, but there was power to amend an indictment to make it correspond with the evidence. In Hongkong the power of amendment were reserved by Ordinance 2 of 1893, where it laid down the form in which the information must be made. The verdict of the jury was that the man was murdered between 7 p.m. on the 17th and 1 p.m. on the 18th. The information could not be amended in that form because of Ordinance 2 of 1893, which said a special date must be fixed. The information could not be amended to make it agree with the verdict of the jury on account of the form specially put in the body of the Ordinance.

His Lordship showed that on these grounds a man might murder with impunity. It was alleged in the indictment that the murder was committed on the 18th. The jury found at first that it was committed on the 18th, and then they modified that by saying they were not sure whether it was a few minutes before midnight or after.

Mr. Slade said he had an absolute right to have the information amended according to the verdict, and he submitted his Lordship could not pass sentence upon an information not according to the verdict.

His Lordship pointed out that Mr. Slade's argument was inconsistent. His first of all said that the information should be amended and then argued it could not be amended.
The law had said that it was not necessary to prove an offence to have been committed on the date alleged in the indictment. He therefore held that the date was immaterial, and he held the verdict good.

Mr. Slade then asked that his Lordship reserve the point as to the meaning of
'from the 17th April' in the proclamation.
After some further discussion, his Lordship said he would reserve for further consideration with Mr. Justice Wise, the question whether the English law of murder was in force in that part of the Colony known as the new territory on 17th April, 1894.
Provided the arrangement was suitable to the Prince Judge, he fixed Thursday at half past one o'clock to hear arguments of normal.

Mr. Slade asked if the question as to the meaning of the sentence would not be referred to the Court. The memorandum and Articles will come before the Court where I have been—Yours truly,

DAVID JONES.

THE CHINESE CUSTOMS
DRASTIC PROGRAM.

A DRAB CUT.

At the Supreme Court to-day, in Criminal Sessions, before His Hon. W. M. Glad-man, Acting Chief Justice, Tang Cheung So and Ching Chi were brought up for sentence on the charge of the murder of Tang Cheung at Du Leung, on 18th April.

Mr. Francis (sustained by Mr. Weston), who appears for two of the prisoners in the second charge of murder, and Mr. Mab-bourn, who appears for the third man, were present in Court.

Mr. Francis (sustained by Mr. Weston), who appears for two of the prisoners in the second charge of murder, and Mr. Mab-
bourn, who appears for the third man,
were present in Court.

Mr. Francis said he had to apply for a postponement of the hearing of the case till the next session, as it was more satisfactory to his Lordship in an adjournment of the present special sessions.

His Lordship said the case was appointed to the session, but he thought Mr. Francis' application was quite reasonable, and adjourned the session for an hour.

Mr. Francis said the witness for the defence were not in Hongkong. He had not seen anything of his brief, and except the copy of the depositions he had received he had had no instructions as regards the defence. The men were committed on 27th last month, and were only served with the information on the 29th of last month.

Mr. Pollock thought there might be a technical point under Ordinance 2 of 1893.

Mr. Francis said there was no objection under that Ordinance. It was in the absolute power of the Court to postpone any proceedings whatever in the interests of justice.

Mr. Pollock said if his Lordship saw no objection as regards that point he had raised it was not opposed to the adjournment.

It was arranged that the case be taken at the next Criminal Sessions on any day convenient to the Court.

Mr. Francis asked for an order for a special jury.

His Lordship granted the order.
